Calling all readers! The San Diego County Library is proud to participate in not one, but two community reading projects!

California Reads: The War Comes Home

invites Californians from all walks of life to read What It Is Like To Go To War by Karl Malantes. San Diego County is home to the second largest population of veterans in the country. In conjunction with California Reads, the county libraries will be holding many programs and book discussions. Check them out at www.sdcl.org/careads.

Seniors & Veterans Resource Table

Who: Active and retired military members & families as well as those age 50 and older.

When: Wednesday September 3 from 10am-12pm

Why: Anyone looking for information regarding services available to military and/or seniors in the San Diego area. Community member Jerry Barber will be happy to assist you with your needs.

One Book One San Diego

is a joint effort with PBS, San Diego City libraries, and San Diego County libraries to foster community discussion. This year's selection is Monstress by Lysley Tenorio. Did you know San Diego hosts the 2nd largest Filipino American population in the country? Lysley Tenorio's book shares the story of when Filipino traditions meet California modernity. Learn more about the programs the county libraries are offering at <http://www.sdcl.org/one-book.html>.

Let's Get Cooking, Filipino Style!

Who: Adults and interested teens wanting to learn to cook

When: Saturday September 6th from 11am-12pm

Why: Experience the flavors of the Philippines, learn how Chicken Adobo is made, and sample the dish.

Coffee & Conversation Book Club

Who: Anyone looking for a good read, good discussion, or a good cup of coffee.

When: Friday September 5 from 10:30-11:30am

Why: Our book club has been meeting for more than 8 years and has covered a wide range of books. Check out our library display of these titles. Book club is always looking for new members. Come to listen if you haven't read the book – you might be enticed to join in next time.

Garden series: Garden Craft

Who: Adults and interested teens wanting to indulge their creative side by making something for their garden.

When: Saturday September 13 from 10-11am

Why: Our Garden series covers practical information to use in your garden such as composting, pruning, & more. Come make biodegradable seedling containers for your garden.

Craft Workshop series: Acrylic Painting

Who: Adults and interested teens who want to learn how to paint with easy to use acrylics

When: Saturday September 20 from 10-11am

Why: Back by popular demand, community member Melvin Stanley will walk you through the basics of painting with acrylics. You'll be able to paint alongside with him and ask questions and advice. Come see his artwork on display!

Classic Movie Night

Who: Movie buffs and those wanting something fun to do

When: Thursday September 4th from 5-7:30pm

Why: Movie enthusiast David Bright will get you behind the scenes of each movie with background trivia. Popcorn provided by the Friends of The Library.

Covered California Resource Table

Who: Anyone interested in learning more about signing up for Covered California,

When: Mondays from 2-3pm

Why: Covered California™ is the easy-to-use marketplace implementing the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act in California. A representative from Borrego Community Health Foundation will be here to answer your questions.

Family Movie Night

Who: Everyone is invited!

When: Thursday September 25 from 6-7:45pm

Why: Come watch this Disney PG-rated movie about a young Hawaiian girl who befriends an extraterrestrial. It's all about family! Popcorn provided by the Friends of the Library but feel free to bring your own snacks too.

Author Birthday Celebrations: H.A. Rey

Who: Anyone who loved reading Curious George as a child or with their children or grandchildren.

When: Thursday September 18 from 3:30-4:30pm

Why: Sometimes the classical authors get overlooked. Come celebrate what would have been H.A. Rey's 116th birthday with readings, treats, crafts & fun.

Baby & Toddler Story Time

Who: Children from ages 0 to 4; Siblings always welcome.

When: Wednesdays from 10:30-11:15am

Preschool Story Time & Craft

Who: Children from ages 3-5; Siblings always welcome.

When: Thursdays from 11-11:45am
